Dear Harold:

Yr 1/26/74 memo on the Rye contact, I'm very vague on his previous surfacing but have to suggest this is another of the current chain of coincidences. The bait is the ID of the double and the prospect of getting those sequestered copies of OinNO.

I'm not saying this guy isn't sincere. What I'm suggesting is that he may be one of those poor devils on whom someone has something and who is not, in the end, answerable only to himself. As I say, I'm very vague about his previous appearance, but have a most unfavorable and doubt-filled impression of it gained at the time from HV, who I don't think of as having tried to influence me one way or another.

Best,
